EMBASSY ART EXHIBITION 2015

OVERVIEW OF THE SELECTED ARTISTS

As many artists will display their works at the exhibition, this booklet provides only some examples of the artists that will participate

"The World" by Liu Xiang, China

Liu Xiang, China

Liu Xiang has never ceased to explore and pursue arts from both Eastern and Western culture with enthusiasm.

He combined the traditional Chinese calligraphy with diversified elements from modern Chinese culture, which creates unique Chinese calligraphy arts of his own.

Wakening

Sofie Xie, China

Untitled

Artist Sofie Xie was born in Wenzhou China and comes from an artisticfamily.

The recent work of Sofie Xie expresses her continuous longing for being at home between China and Europe.

A constant desire for the Netherlands and eternally homesick for China, Sofie Xie lives the culture of her homeland, but her art is shaped by the life in the Netherlands.

Dancing dragon and phoenix

Yun Xie, China

Yun Xie is a Chinese artist who is now living in the Netherlands. From her motherland she brought her love for Chinese culture and art. In the Netherlands she developed a love for making sculptures and paintings.

Her art focuses on human figures with great attention for detail and are developed from her heart. In this sense she still feels the obligation to act in the western world as an ambassador for the (old) Chinese culture.

Terracotta PiPa dancer

Early Tang GuanYin

Happy Girl

Vladimir Soghomonian, Armenia

Vladimir headed the Sevan branch of the Armenian National Center of Esthetics. In 1998 V. Soghomonian became a member of the Armenia's Union of Artists. 2011 held a personal exhibition at the Armenia's Union of Artists. V. Soghomonian' s works are in private collections in many countries.

Payl Vanikyan, Armenia

Payl Vanikyan is internationally recognized, talented Armenian contemporary artist. His exhibition took place in Russia, Lebanon, Germany, Belgium and many other countries.

Armando Reveron, Venezuela

1

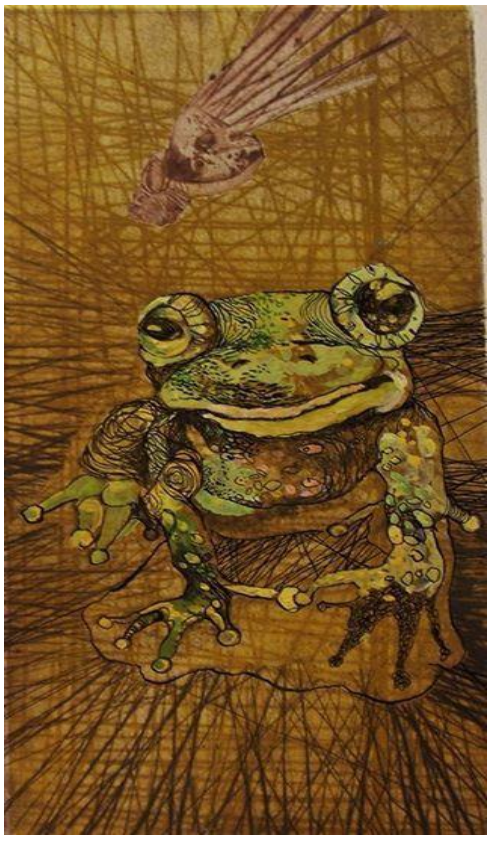
2

3

Armando Reveron was the most authentic and original one, among the painters of the famous group known as "Circle of Fine Arts" (1912-1920) and with whom strove the "Academy of Fine Arts" and its dogmas. He was a prominent student of the academy of Caracas, in which he studied with Herrera Toro between (1908-1911).

Actor, shaman, charmer of rag dolls, environmentalist and creator of unusual objects, with an acute histrionic behaviour. The most original, also the most complete among creators of Venezuelan modern Art.

Nina Šrajber, Serbia



Frog 1 & 2

Tomislav Paunković, Serbia

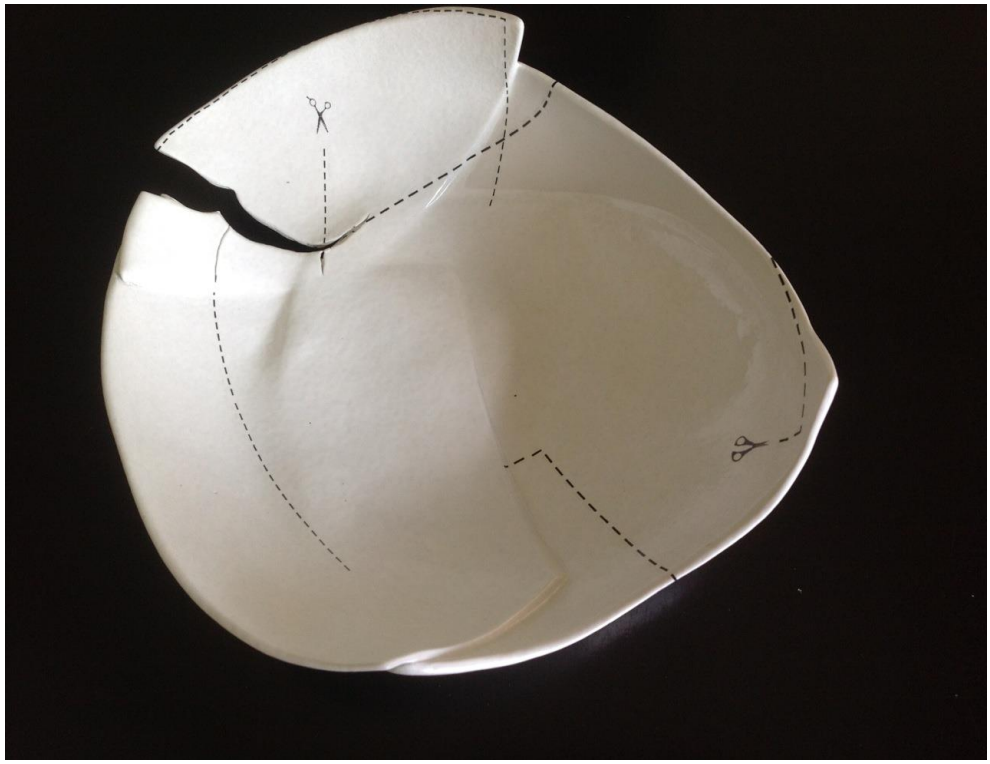
Old Blue 1 & 2

Autumn 1

Ivana Milenković, Serbia

With flowers in her hair 1 & 5

Jasmina Pejčić, Serbia



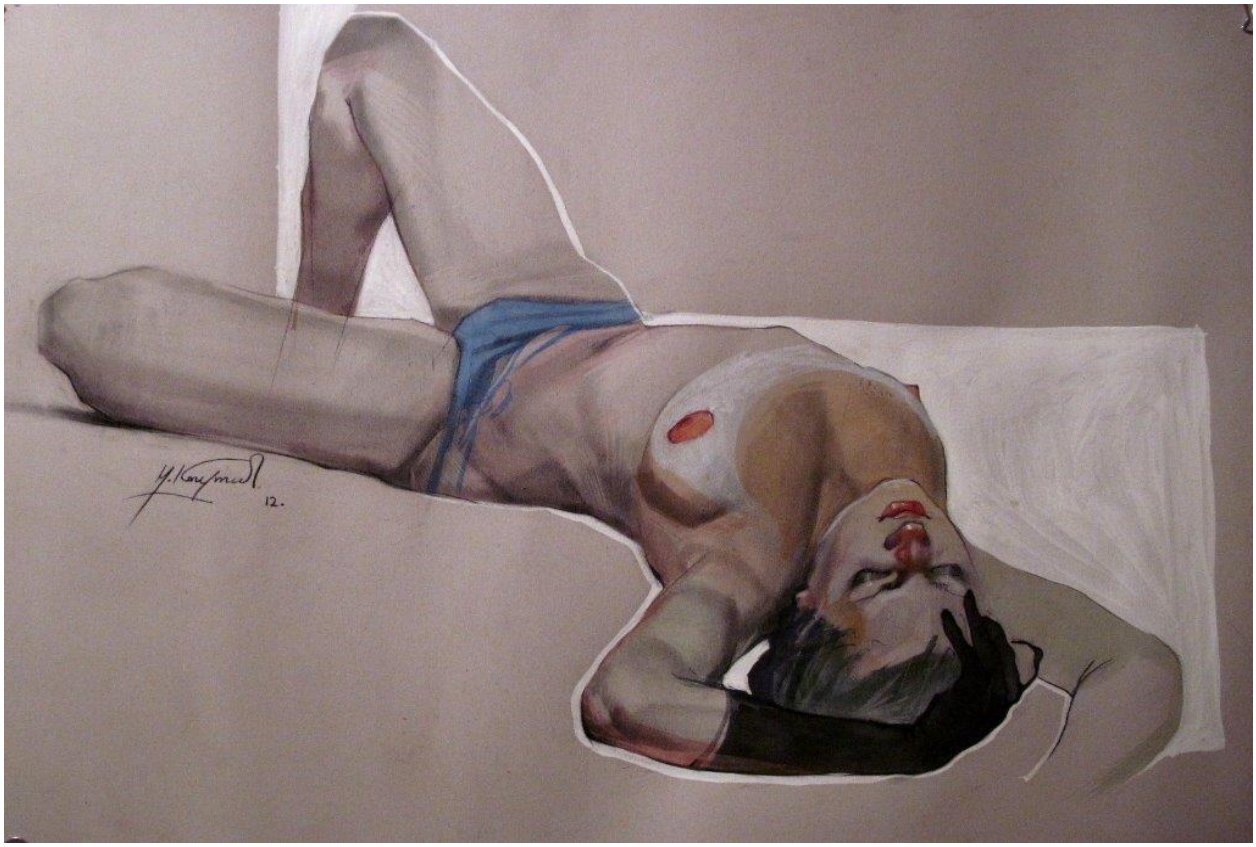
Unicaat Bowl 1 & 3

Ksenija Cerce, Slovenia

Mitja Ficko, Slovenia

Robert Cernelc, Slovenia

Vasyl Kohutych, Ukraine



Taoufik Kerkeni, Tunisia

Houcine Bouchiba, Tunisia

Choki Ben Amor, Tunisia

Soraya Sikander, Pakistan

Soraya Sikander is one of today's leading contemporary South Asian artists. Known for her landscapes and organic forms, the artist has been ranked as one of Pakistan's best known painters making it big internationally, listed as 'Artist to watch'. Soraya works in oil on canvas, ink on paper and is known for her environmentally conscious sculptural installations produced from found and recycled objects.

Lara Zankoul, Lebanon

The dreamlike compositions of Lebanese photographer Lara Zankoul are contemporary fairy tales that explore the charm and mystery of the human psyche. Whimsical and playful, they represent an attempt to invent new worlds, to push against the boundaries of our reality and escape the monotony of everyday life. The characters inhabiting Zankoul's work are anonymous and timeless, universal symbols existing within a fantastical and surreal landscape.

Feminine side

Jakub Ferri, Kosovo

Rodolfo Oviedo Vega, El Salvador

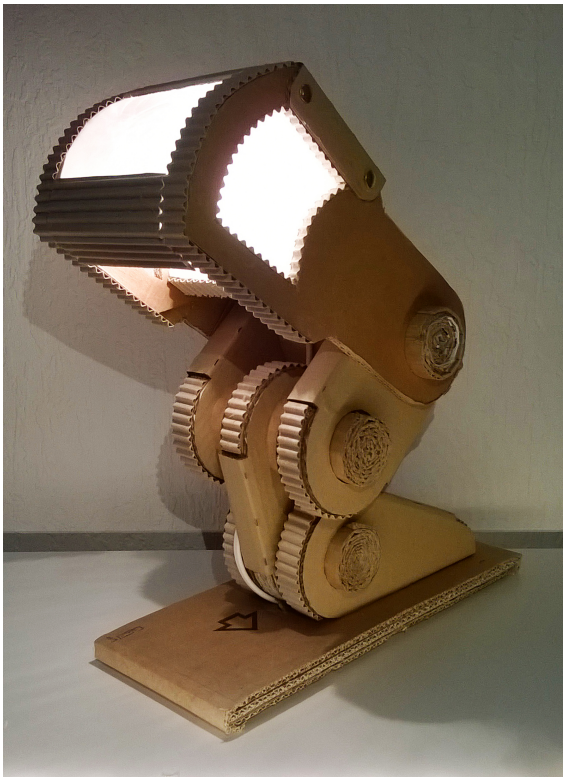
Armando Arpaja, Italy

Copenaghen, "Nyhavn"

Donarnene "L'Etoile de Mer"

Parigi, "Le monde Libertaire"

Flavio Gemma, Italy



Arm

Iron_mini

Embassy Art Exhibition 2015 has been organised by

DIPLOMAT MAGAZINE

By / For Diplomats
www.diplomatmagazine.nl

GALERIE Patries van Dorst

With thanks to

VimpelCom